A BOLD CONSPIRACY.

Two Young Fellows Plot to Kidnap Ex-Senator Tabor.

The Plan by Which They Were to Get $50,000 From Him.

Their Plot is Discovered and They are Arrested.

Tabor Refusss to Prosecute and They are Released.

A Daring Conspiracy.

DENVER, February 14. Oscar Roberts and Arthur Butcher, aged 23 and 21 years respectively, were arrested to day charged with conspiracy to kidnap and hold ex-Senator Tabor for a ransom of $50,000 Roberts who until recently lived in Rincon, New Mexico, originated the scheme and on November the 7th wrote the following letter to Butcher who was then in Omaha

My Dear Butch Yours of November 1 and 3 received to day. They were delayed on account of the snow blockade Here is a supposition: Suppose there lived in Denver a certain millionaire. Suppose also that a man was murdered several years ago and this supposed millionaire profited by his death a very reasonable supposition. Eh? now suppose there were two very ambitious young fellows, they might be anybody in the world except you and I, who were very poor and by the use of money they could carry out their schemes and make a great deal more money. Now, suppose these two young fellows should go to Denver, get a house in a very lonely situation, disguise themselves and by hook or crook entice this supposed millionaire to enter the above said lonely house without suspicion on his part, and while there have a confidential talk with him. Subject the two supposed and ambitious young men wish to borrow from the supposed millionaire, say a sum of not less than $50,000, bright American dollars, and they will, in all faith, promise to pay it back in the course of ten years.

Suppose the supposed millionaire refuses well and good, the supposed young men will board him for a while. Bill of fare and prices: Breakfast, $10,000; dinner, $10,000; supper, $10,000; two breakfasts $20,000, two dinners $20,000, one supper $10,000; total $80,000.. It is rather expensive grub, and the supposed millionaire will undoubtedly think so and may not indulge for a few days, but then everybody gets hungry and millionaires are no exceptions.

Now, suppose the supposed millionaire agrees without so much trouble to make the loan to the two ambitious youths, the $50,000; very good. they would accept his note, payable on sight, and have him write and sign a document stating that he had hired a man to kill a certain man some years ago, thereby compromising himself and preventing him pressing his demand for the payment of the sum of $50,000, loaned to the two ambitious youths.

My Dear Butch, what I have been aiming you, as you see, is only on the basis of supposition, but (I am assured of one of the youths) would you like to become one of the supposed youths? If so meet me in Denver and I will show you the other supposed youth. Thanksgiving day falls on the 30th, say we meet there the 26th. Can and will you? If I conclude to go sooner I will telegraph you. If things are satisfactory to you, leave so as to get in Denver the 26th of November, 1889, sure. I will not disappoint you, you can rest assured Please return the letter with your answer. Ever your pard. "O. K."

On November 17, Roberts again wrote his friend saying he was tired of poverty and wanted thousands of dollars and ten years in which to spend them, and that in those years he intended to live a century. He declared he was sincere and could successfully carry out the scheme and concluded by asking Butcher to meet him in Denver ten days after the receipt of this last letter The men or rather boys met here on the day set and when Roberts said that Tabor was the man he intended to kidnap, Butcher first declined to go into the scheme but afterwards consented The police, by some means, discovered what was going on and yesterday arrested them. They first claimed that the whole affair was a joke and said they had no intentions of carrying it out but after having been behind the bars twenty-four hours they to-day made a confession. Ex Senator Tabor refused to prosecute the boys on account of their youth and after they had made all manner of promises of reform and in the future to conduct themselves as honest men, they were released.

Sensational Developments Expected.

CHICAGO, February 14 Young Stoner, the clerk who it is alleged aided in defrauding the well known board of trade speculator, B. P. Hutchinson, of several thousand dollars by means of fictitious deals, returned from Canada several days ago and has resumed his desk in Hutchinson's office. It is now stated that his partner, Bert King, who was employed by Broker Dickinson, is also to return. The explanation made by Mr. Dickinson in that he and Hutch satisfied themselves that the young men were only the tools of a coterie of brokers who conspired to defraud Hutchinson. Hutchinson wants to get at these men, and therefore guaranteed the boys immunity should they return and clear the matter up. Sensational developments are expected.

A Big Machine.

HAMILTON, Ohio, February 14. The Niles Tool works, of Hamilton, have finished and are loading an immense armor plate bending roll that is to be sent to the navy yard at Mare Island, San Francisco The tremendous machine weighs 400,000 pounds and the freight will be something over $10,000 A number of special flat cars have been built for the transportation of the load, and the whole train will be run through to the coast as a special It is the largest single shipment and the finest machine that ever left Hamilton, where some magnificent machinery is built.

Fatally Hurt While Sparring.

ST LOUIS, February 14. A special from Dallas, Texas, says: Jake Kilrain and his sparring troupe exhibited at the opera house last night. It was announced that there would be only sparring and wrestling matches. Tom James of Dallas encountered Banzia, the combination champion light weight for $25 on the condition that James should stay four rounds. Banzia had it his own way from the first. In the fourth round Banzia struck James in the neck knocking him limp on the stage. James was unable to rise. He was sponged and restoratives applied, but the show was continued, no one supposing that James was hurt seriously. When the entertainment was about concluded Muldoon announced that James was unconscious and called for a physician James died at 12 30 o'clock this morning. Kilrain cried like a child and the entire combination was arrested on the charge of murder It is supposed that James' neck was broken but one doctor says it was paralysis of the heart

Banzia is a Cincinnati light-weight who joined the Kilrain Muldoon combination at New Orleans when it was organized a short time ago. Wherever the combination shows, a prize of $25, is offered to any light weight who will stand for four rounds before Banzia and a prize of $100 to any man who will stay four rounds with Kilrain.

There is also a prize of $2 a minute for any wrestler who will remain with Muldoon. While Banzia has never fought anybody in the Jack McAuliffe class, he is considered a good man, at his weight and is a remarkably hard hitter It has been the custom for some time for prize fighting combinations to offer money prizes for local pugilist's to stand before their stars but this is the first fatal result from the custom The affair has created the greatest excitement here and will do much to kill prize fighting in the state

Fifty-first Congress.

SENATE

WASHINGTON, February 14. A number of bills were passed in the senate to day including the following.

The house bill for the relief of the sufferers by the wreck of the United States steamers at Samoa; providing for an assistant secretary of war at a salary of $4,500; for the relief of soldiers and sailors who enlisted, or served under assumed names; to prevent the obstruction of navigable waters and to protect the works against trespass or injury; appropriating $50,000 for the lighthouse at the north head of Cape Disappointment, Washington; appropriating $6,900 to restore telegraphic communication between Tatoosh Island and Port Angles, Washington; appropriating $125,000 for a United States revenue cutter for service on the Pacific coast, with headquarters at Astoria, Oregon; providing for the acquisition of land for town sites and commercial purposes in Alaska; to prevent the introduction of contagious diseases from one state to another, the concurrent resolution for international arbitration; for the benefit of actual and bona fide settlers on lands in Colorado lately occupied by the Uncompahgre and White river Ute Indians, to provide for the disposal of Fort Sedgwick military reservation in the states of Colorado and Nebraska, to actual settlers under provisions of the homestead laws.

The bill to declare unlawful trusts and combinations in restraining trade and production having been reached on the calendar, it was laid aside for the present. Altogether there were sixty bills passed.

After executive session the senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, February 14. Not more than two dozen members were present when the house met this morning in the constitutional Thursday's session.

Stewart and Barnes of Georgia and Reilly of Pennsylvania entered protests against the adoption of the proposed code and the action of Speaker Reed was defended by Raines of New York. Thursday's session then ended and the session of Friday opened.

The journal was approved, the speaker counting a quorum.

The committee on the world's fair submitted a report and it was ordered printed and recommitted.

Consideration of the rules was then proceeded with.

Bynum, of Indiana, offered an amendment providing that when any bill for an increase of pension or granting pensions, not provided for, is pending, it shall be in order to offer an amendment providing by taxation for the payment thereof.

Thomas, of Wisconsin, opposed the amendment declaring that its object was to bury pension legislation in the house.

Spinola, of New York, denied the statement and asserted that the democratic side of the house will be found as true as steel to the real interests of the veterans of the country but believed that a tax should be placed especially for paying pensions.

Allen, of Michigan, was glad this heinous amendment sprang from the brain of a gentleman trained in Indiana politics and belonging to that class of men who were peace men in war and war men in peace. This proposition disguised as it might be was intended to thwart any attempt to alleviate the condition of the soldiers by any further legislation. The amendment was rejected 96 to 164

Outhwaite's motion striking out the clause constituting 100 members a quorum in the committee of the whole was rejected. He pointed out that rule 23, which reads "motions or propositions originating either in the house or senate, etc," would by implication and against the constitution acknowledge the right of the senate to originate revenue bills. He moved an amendment to this which was adopted, the speaker stating that there had been no intention on the part of the committee to make such acknowledgement.

Motions, by Carlisle to strike out the clause conferring upon the speaker the power to count a quorum and by Mills to strike out the clause that no dilatory motions shall be entertained by the speaker, were lost.

Five o'clock having arrived the speaker stated that the previous question was ordered on the adoption of the rules.

Springer inquired whether a motion to recommit with instructions was in order and received a negative reply.

The rules were then adopted by a strict party vote, yeas 161, nays 145, and the house adjourned.

Decisions on Election Cases

WASHINGTON, February 14. The house committee on contested elections this morning by strict party votes recommended the seating of Featherstone, the republican contestant for the seat of Cate in the First Arkansas district, and of Mudd, the republican contestant for the seat of Barnes Compton in the Fifth Maryland district By unanimous vote it was decided that Clarke, the democratic sitting member from the First Alabama district be allowed to keep his seat

A STORY OF CRIME.

Story of a Brutal Murder Which was Committed in Maine.

A Man Supposed to Have Lured His Brother to His Death.

Comments of the English Press on Commission Report.

The Pall Mall Gazette Says it is a Complete Vindication.

Story of a Cruel Murder.

EAST ROCHESTER, N. H., February 14. The body of Hiram Sawtell, of Roxbury, Mass., was found to day horribly mutilated and with a bullet in the heart, buried in the woods near Lebanon, Maine Isaac Sawtell, brother of the dead man, is under arrest charged with the killing.

The case is one of the most interesting in the criminal history of New England. Last December Isaac was pardoned after being convicted of rape. Since then he has boarded with his brother Hiram in Roxbury, Mass., where the latter kept a fruit store The Sawtell property was worth from $15,000 to $20,000, and Isaac deceived his mother and induced her to transfer it to him. Hiram however put an injunction on it so Isaac could not sell it. This caused hard feelings and it is now believed that Isaac plotted to remove his brother and the entire family consisting of a wife and three children.

Last Saturday Isaac took a little daughter, aged 8 years, to Rochester, N. H. There he gave her medicine it is believed with the intention of killing her, but only succeeded in making her sick He telegraphed Hiram that the little girl had la grippe and for him to come immediately. This was February 4th Next morning another telegram came urging the mother to come Finally Hiram left for Rochester on February 5th, and was never again seen alive by his friends Next day Isaac and the little girl arrived home, and the former denied having seen Hiram at all. The following Sunday he disappeared and on Monday the police began an investigation.

The detectives discovered traces of suspicious actions on the part of Isaac He hired a team at a Rochester livery stable, met a man at the depot (undoubtedly Hiram) with whom he drove away. Late in the afternoon he returned, bought a pick axe and spade and drove away again, not returning until late at night. He then went to Portland and registered at a hotel under a fictitious name. Yesterday the officers traced him down and arrested him This morning his clothing was carefully examined and blood stains were discovered on his shirt and trousers, both showing evidence of having been washed

A searching party of 400 men scoured the woods to-day and found a shoe believed to have been worn by Hiram, a blood stained handkerchief and a piece of his hat. Soon after a poorly made grave was discovered and the body was found, minus both arms and head Near by was found a paper which had been wrapped around the axe bought by Isaac. The case appears to be a clear one against him, and he is supposed to have a confederate who is believed to be Charles Elood, who was in prison with him.

Comment on the Report.

LONDON, February 14. All the papers comment at length on the finding of the Parnell commission The Gladstonian papers find in it a triumphant vindication. The unionist papers give it the most unqualified condemnation.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: The report of the special commission is a more complete vindication of the Parnellites and a more sweeping condemnation of the Times than the most sanguine home rulers ventured to hope for. If the view of the unionist press is right that report convicts the Parnellites as criminal conspirators. Then what must the ministers do with them? They cannot expel them from the commons, on the contrary, they have promised already to introduce a bill handing over the local government of Ireland to these convicted criminals. The ministers must disassociate themselves publically from such views, otherwise they will find themselves in an embarrassing dilemma The Gazette admits that the judges dealt honestly with the facts presented to them, but says they had prejudices It continues: "They were impartial in their conclusions but have shown marked partiality in their distribution of expletives, hurling epithet after epithet at the Irish members without uttering one disapproving word for the forgeries of the Tories"

Quantities of Gold Discovered.

CHICAGO, February 14 A conference of great importance was held to day between two Chinese dignitaries and the representatives of the big mining machinery firm of Fraser & Chalmers, of this city. The result was that negotiations were formally entered into looking to the construction of 300 stamp mills in the mountains of China. The magnitude of the deal may be understood when it is stated that the mills set up complete will cost nearly four million dollars, this including transportation, erection, skilled labor, etc.

The Chinese claim that there has been discovered in China the richest and most extensive gold bearing lands in the world. The Chinese have known for many years that in the mountains of Tai Shan, in the province of Shan Tung, there has been gold, but not until a year ago did they realize the amount of it, when some who had worked in the mines and mills in California began prospecting and discovered the bonanza They erected a rude mill and from the outset the product of gold was enormous They claim that not a ton of ore taken out has yielded less than $700 while much of it has run into the thousands. The matter was kept quiet and a big stock company formed that secured control of about eighty miles of land in the vicinity and the two Chinamen now here were sent to this country to make preliminary arrangements for the purchase of machinery, etc., and also to float a certain portion of the stock.

Chu Sing Kland and Tong Sing Klu landed in San Francisco two months ago and had no difficulty in disposing of the stock to wealthy Chinamen of that city. From here they go to Washington. In an interview, one of them said that the gold property is on a peninsula, across the Corean sea from the peninsula of Corea and directly west. It is, said he, within sixteen miles of the sea coast and not more than twenty miles from a good port. They contemplate erecting the finest plant in the world. During the day there was a great hubbub among the well-to-do Chinamen of Chicago, and fully a score of them called at the hotel and talked with their countryman. The visitors are richly attired and wear the Mandarin button.

The Ute Removal Bill

DENVER, February 14 A Times Washington special says. It was hoped that the sub committee, on the Ute removal, of the house committee on Indian affairs would be able to report at their meeting this morning but the matter could not be reached The report is said to be written and favorable to removal and it is hoped that it will be reached at their meeting to morrow. The friends of the bill are still very hopeful of success in the committee, but they are getting somewhat impatient over the delay as the senate committee is even slower than the house committee This is due to the fact that the Indian Rights association are bringing all the influence possible to bear on Senator Dawes, who is from Massachusetts, where the Indian sentiment is especially strong There is a growing feeling that he is opposed to removal. There is little doubt, however, that the measure will ultimately succeed, even in opposition to the wishes of the chairman of the committee

They Must Close.

DENVER, February 14 The supreme court today handed down an opinion in the Hencsen liquor case which involves the Sunday closing question Hencsen was arrested for keeping open on Sunday, tried before Judge Allen in the district court and convicted. The case was made a test case and carried to the supreme court, the defendant claiming that the city of Denver under its charter had control of licensing saloons and could dictate how they should be conducted and that the county and state had no authority in the matter. The decision of the supreme court affirms Judge Allen's decision and the saloons will probably be closed on Sunday

Deputy Marshal Assassinated.

WASHINGTON, February 14 Attorney General Miller has received the following telegram from Marshal Miselle at Jacksonville, Fla. "W. B. Saunders, one of my bravest and most efficient deputies, was brutally assassinated at Quincy, Gadsden county, yesterday afternoon where he had gone with myself and other deputies on official business"

A Bank Robbed.

SALEM, Ills., February 14 The Salem bank vault was entered by burglars last night and ten thousand dollars in money and some securities were carried off.

ST. LOUIS, February 14 A special to the Republic from Salem, Ills., says that much excitement prevails over the robbery of the Salem National bank last night. It is now thought that the cracksmen got in the neighborhood of $25 000 in cash and securities Evidently the robbers found little trouble in breaking the vault The safe proper was "cracked" in the old fashioned way, by the use of gun powder. The robbers must have been in a great hurry for they left a quantity of gold pieces scattered on the floor of the vault and overlooked at least $10,000 in currency and securities. President Macklin announces that the actual loss in cash will not exceed $10,000 and the bank will be open for business to-morrow. Officers are scouring the country for the robbers but they are at sea as to the identity of the criminals.

Pensions for Nurses

WASHINGTON, February 14. Senator Davis to day introduced a bill providing for a pensioning rate of $25 a month from March 4th, 1889, for all women army nurses during the late war and who rendered six months' service in camp, the field or the general hospitals. The women who now receive pensions at a rate less than $25 shall have the pension increased to that amount. The bill also provides that those who now receive pensions as widows or dependent mothers of soldiers who would be entitled to the benefits of the bill may also receive $25 a month during their lives as an increase in their present pension.

World's Fair Bills.

WASHINGTON, February 14. The house committee to which the various world's fair bills were referred, completed its report this morning. It says that it was found impracticable to report one bill to cover all the localities It therefore submits two substitute bills on the question of selecting a site It offers a resolution to the effect that at the close of the debate on the bills, the house shall begin voting on a site and continue till one is selected

Sensation in Naval Circles

WASHINGTON, February 14 The Star says that a sensation in naval circles will develop when the United States steamer Enterprise arrives from Europe. It is said that upward of 50 men have deserted, owing to the commander's harshness. Two men are now in irons and there will be a court martial and investigation on the return of the vessel

Townsend Scores a Point

DENVER, February 14. A Washington special to the Times says: The house committee on military affairs this morning agreed to favorably report Representative Townsend's bill providing for the return of the Colorado war flags from the war department to the state.

A Sad Wedding Day.

PARIS, February 14 At Pontivia yesterday a vehicle conveying a bride and bridegroom and a number of friends upset, and the whole party was precipitated into the river. The bride and bridegroom and ten others were drowned.

Vessel and Crew Lost.

VICTORIA B. C., February 14.—The news has been received that a lumber-laden ship has gone to pieces on Vergus island, at the entrance of Clayoquot sound. All the crew are lost but the number is unknown

The next attraction at the opera house will be Hoyt's great success "A Tin Soldier," next Wednesday evening. A St. Louis exchange says: "Mr. Hoyt's "Tin Soldier" was performed before two assemblages simply immense in size at Pope's yesterday afternoon and evening. Paul Dresser does the Plumber with the unction and dry method of a funny specialty man who is very fat of body. Louis Wesley is even funnier than Eugene Canfield as Rats, simply because he can work laughs into his dances and gymnastic gyrations. St. George Hussey is sufficiently loud and hilarious as Violet, the ruler of the scullery. Her specialties were encored loudly. Fanny Bloodgood sang and danced and looked pretty as Patsy."

THE SUNDAY GAZETTE.

Among the features of to morrow's big Sunday edition of the GAZETTE will be found the following:

Henry La Luberne, the popular Paris newspaper correspondent, writes on the subject of "European Potentates at the Table." The letter describing the fads and fancies of the rulers of Europe as seen at their tables, is both amusing and interesting.

In a characteristically bright letter, Mrs. John Sherwood writes on "New York Society as Seen from Europe." Few women writers for the daily press can claim greater popularity for their work than Mrs. Sherwood, and this letter will be found of equal interest with her former productions.

The editor of the Collectionneur, Arthur Maury, writes about the stamp collecting mania. Maury is one of the leading authorities of the world on this subject and his journal is perhaps the leading organ of the stamp trade. He tells many new facts about the various postage and other stamps of the different countries, their origin and values.

Walter Wellman furnishes a bright letter from the national capital on subjects now leading among those talked about in official circles.

An article on the epochs of Presbyterian church history, suggested by the movement for the revision of the creed which may rank historically as one of them, will appear. The Westminister assembly, the covenant in Scotland and other great events of church history are recalled.

The careers of some of the public men of the day are described in an article which has for its object the making of a comparison between the older and younger politicians who are figuring in the present generation.

Hugh Farrar McDermott, the old time friend of Walt Whitman, tells about the "Good Gray Poet," his early life, how he came to choose his career, his fight against unappreciative publishers and critics and his final success.

From San Salvador Frederick White furnishes a letter on the late revolution in Salvador. He tells what the lively row was about and how it was crushed.

Robert Graves, in his Washington letter, tells of the contrasts to be noted at the capital and the ups and downs of life there.

William M. Ayers is the democratic candidate for congress in the Fourth district of Pennsylvania, which was for so many years represented by the late Judge Kelley. Ayers was the democratic candidate in that district in 1888 but was defeated by nearly ten thousand majority. It is not likely that Reyburn, the present republican candidate, will have any such majority at the coming election but he will probably be elected with a good margin.

Dr. Albert Shaw, of Minneapolis, is one of the most thorough students in America of public questions. In the March Century one of his most important papers will appear. It is entitled "Glasgow: a Municipal Study." Professor Ely, of John Hopkins university, has been calling attention to this article in recent lectures. The professor believes that it will be of immediate and practical assistance in the improvement of some of our American municipal governments.

The interesting fact is announced by Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons that they have acquired from Mr. Henry M. Stanley all the American rights for his personal narrative of the expedition for the relief of Emin Pasha. Prior to the appearance of the complete work, Scribner's Magazine will publish an article upon his last journey by Mr. Stanley. It will be illustrated and is certain to be as important a contribution as any that has ever appeared in an American magazine. Readers may have noticed that Mr. Herbert Ward, who was one of Stanley's officers, makes no mention of the expedition in the article recounting his experiences upon the Congo, which appears in Scribner's for February, the fact being that Mr. Stanley has reserved the sole right to describe this most remarkable of all his African undertakings.

An Aged Couple Murdered

OMAHA, February 14. The bodies of an old couple named Jones, who lived six miles west of Omaha, were discovered this morning hidden behind the barn on their farm, both perforated with bullets. They had been dead some days. There is no clue to the murderers.

Won on a Foul.

CHICAGO, February 14. Reddy Brennan, light weight champion of Montana and John Eckert from Streator, Ills., fought to a finish at Oswego, Ills., last night, seven rounds with small gloves. The fight was given to Brennan on a foul. Both men were severely punished.

JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL.

Rev. Mr. Gregg's Lecture on the American Poet and Diplomat.

Former admirers of James Russell Lowell, who had been alienated in sympathy by his political departure of a few years ago, found it delightful to be again brought face to face with the purely literary side of his life, by so enthusiastic and at the same time critical student of his works as Rev. Mr. Gregg, whose lecture was given yesterday afternoon. After all it is Lowell, the poet and essayist, who will live in American hearts.

The indebtedness of American literature to clergymen, the speaker said, is noted. Our literature would be robbed of its glory if the words of the clergymen were taken out. Lowell was the son of a minister, of an old New England family, some member of which has come to the front in every generation. It is often said that great men have remarkable mothers, and Lowell was no exception. He was born in an ideal home in which the father was wide-minded, the mother bright and vivacious. Poetic lore was as natural to the family as their bodily senses. Their home was in an old colonial mansion at Cambridge, shut in by trees and shrubs filled with birds. There are no other poems in which birds flit to and fro and carol as in Lowell's.

The ways of the village of 30 years ago were simple and unconventional, and it was here in his boyhood Lowell became familiar with the Yankee type of character he depicts so perfectly. At Harvard, from which he was graduated, he studied almost everything except the prescribed books and was an omnivorous reader. The practice of law proved uncongenial and he devoted himself to authorship.

There are no finer tributes to womanhood in the language than in his poems. His wife, who was a poet of no mean ability, evoked such love and reverence as to draw out the expression "Earth's noblest thing, a woman perfected," and his whole life was purified and hallowed by her memory.

When the first series of Hosea Biglow's papers was issued it made powerful anti-slavery music. The second series, extending through the civil war, was more remarkable than the first, full of the spirit of the great struggle: the complete volume ranks as the matchless Yankee idyl.

The more noteworthy poems were reviewed in the hope of leading the audience to a study of Lowell, whom the English know better than Americans do.

In 1865 Harvard kept a solemn commemoration day in honor of her 100 students who had fallen in the war and Lowell recited the ode of the occasion which, in its grandeur and pathos, showed that he had reached the high water mark of his genius, and gained a certain immortality. The range of his genius is phenomenally greater than that of any other English poet. His mind is crowded with such a wealth of thought that when he lifts the gate a flood comes pouring out bearing all sorts of material. He is never dull if sometimes heavy. Some of his poetry is hard reading, and that is why he has not attained the popularity of Whittier and Longfellow. His works need to be relieved of much poetical baggage, in order to make him a poet of all time.

His essays are compact, full of wisdom and worth studying. Purity of thought and feeling characterize his writings. He is profoundly religious and a guide and inspiration to the spirit. He regards the future life as a continuation of the ministry begun here.

Of late years Lowell has been before the public as a man of affairs and has written little. An American of Americans, few can equal him as an apt speaker on public occasions, and his countrymen had reason to be proud of his ability in this respect while he was minister at European courts.

In the immortal "Present Crisis" the following lines occur:

"Once to every man and nation, comes the moment to decide,
In the strife of truth with falsehood or evil [illegible]
[illegible] cause God's new Messiah
Offering each the bloom or blight,
Parts the goats upon the left hand and the sheep upon the right,
And the choice goes by forever 'twixt that darkness and that light."

COLORADO COLLEGE

P. M. Mead left for his home at Highland Lake, Colo., yesterday morning.

C. C. Thompson, the newly-elected captain, has assumed command of the cadets.

The new term began at 8:30 Thursday morning with a full attendance of old and one new student.

The examinations are over and the careworn look has faded out of the pale students' face everybody passed.

Miss Wickard has entirely recovered from a recent attack of la grippe, and has again assumed charge of her classes.

Quite a number of changes have been made in the schedule of studies, and a new system of markings for absences has been adopted.

The class in physiology now begin a study of thought, and abstract thought knowledge, having entered the philosophical domain of that study.

Every room in the dormitory is occupied at the present time, and more room is the cry; consequently the sooner we get the girls hall the better for the college.

President Slocum left for Trinidad yesterday morning. He delivered an address at that point Friday night, and will preach in Las Vegas, N. M., Sunday morning.

Careful preparation is being made for the continental tea to be given by the young ladies Friday evening, February 21st. Quaint and ancient costumes, elegant refreshments, and a general good time will be the order of the evening.

The College Hose Co. No. 4 met in its somewhat mangled hose house Saturday evening and voted to petition the city fathers for a new building. Mr. Clay H. White, as foreman, was selected to lay the matter before the council at its next meeting.

An English nun, Sister Rose Gertrude, is now on her way to the Sandwich Islands to spend her life among the lepers of Molokoi, Father Damien's former charge. Her real name is Amy Fowler.

THE LIQUOR LICENSE.

Full Text of the Liquor License Adopted by the City Council.

The adoption of an ordinance by the city council Thursday night putting a license fee of $1000 on drug stores selling liquor, gave rise to a great deal of comment on the streets yesterday. There was difference of opinion in regard to the matter, some citizens claiming that the council had not gone far enough and should have fixed the fee at $1500 or $2000 while others thought $1000 too much. Nearly all were agreed, however, that as long as liquors are sold the city to be drank that the city should get a revenue from it.

Several of the druggists of the city were interviewed regarding the matter yesterday. Nearly all expressed an intention of taking out a license, for as one of them stated, "if one takes out a license the rest will be compelled to." At one drug store there was an expression of approval of the council's action, and it was declared that they would be satisfied if the license was put even higher. It was felt that the action would shut out a number of drug stores that were on the point of starting up. A majority of the proprietors, however, were feeling a little blue and inclined to grumble. One of them said that he felt the license was too high because they could only sell in packages and could not sell at all during fifty two days of the year. He did not think $1000 would be high for a saloon license in this city, but with all the other restrictions there are upon drug stores he felt it to be almost exorbitant.

A member of the council in speaking of the matter yesterday said that the passage of the ordinance was quite remarkable, and he did not believe it ever happened before that a liquor ordinance like that was passed in a city council without a dissenting voice and without its being necessary to argue the matter. He believed that if it had been put at $1500 it would have gone through just as quickly.

There seems to be an impression that by the laws of the session of 1889 that all dealers in liquors must pay a license of $600 to the state in addition to a city license. This is not the case, however. The law under which the ordinance adopted Thursday evening was passed, was approved March 28, 1889, is entitled "An act regulating the issuance of licenses for the sale of malt, vinous and spirituous liquors." The first section of the act is as follows:

Section 1. In all cities, whether in incorporated under the general laws or by special charter, the license fee for the privilege of selling spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, in less quantities than one gallon, shall not be less than six hundred dollars per annum. In incorporated towns such license fee shall not be less than five hundred dollars per annum in counties where the boards of county commissioners are now authorized by law to issue licenses to sell spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, such license fee shall not be less than three hundred dollars per annum.

There are eight more sections to the law, one of which provides for a bond of $2,000 to be executed by the liquor dealers, and one for the time such license may be extended, which is not less than [illegible] months nor more than twelve.

The ordinance adopted by the council is as follows:

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Colorado Springs:

Section 1. Whosoever, by himself or another, either as principal, clerk, agent or servant, shall sell or dispose of, or shall give away for the purpose of evading any of the provisions of this ordinance, any intoxicating, spirituous, malt, vinous, fermented or mixed liquors within the corporate limits of this city, or within one mile beyond the outer boundaries thereof, shall be deemed guilty of an offense, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $[illegible], nor more than $300, for each offense; provided, that any regular druggist, holding a license from the city council as hereinafter provided for, may sell any of said liquors, only for the purposes, in the quantities and in the manner provided for in section 2 of this ordinance.

Sec. 2. The city council of said city may, on application in writing, stating street and number of place of business, accompanied by a petition signed by twenty five resident freeholders, five of whom shall be owners of property in the block in which the store is situated, grant a license to any regular druggist to sell said liquors in packages, in quantities of not less than one quart each, for medicinal, mechanical and chemical purposes only, on any day of the week except Sunday; provided said druggist shall sell in less quantities than one quart for medical purposes only, on any day of the week, on a prescription from a regular practicing physician, said prescription only being good for the quantity specified therein, and for one purchase only, and said license shall not be issued for a greater period than twelve months nor for a less period than six months from the date of issue, nor until the whole of the license fee due therefor and hereafter provided for has been paid into the city treasury of the city; provided always that the city council shall revoke such license whenever the holder thereof shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance, or whenever in the judgment of the city council the public welfare shall require. Said license shall not apply to the sale of any of the said liquors to persons named in sections [illegible] and 7 of this ordinance.

Sec 3. Every druggist taking out a license under section 2 of this ordinance shall first execute a bond in the penal sum of two thousand dollars, which bond shall run to the people of the state of Colorado, shall be signed by the applicant and at least two good and sufficient sureties residing in El Paso county, shall be conditioned that the applicant shall keep an orderly house, that he will not permit any unlawful game or riotous conduct in his house, that he will not violate any of the provisions of the statutes regarding the sale or giving away of spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, nor the ordinances of the city of Colorado Springs in relation to such sale or giving away, and that he will pay all damages, costs, penalties and forfeitures which may be adjudged against him for the violation of any such law or ordinance, which bond shall be approved by the city council before such license shall issue.

Sec. 4. Every druggist taking out a license under section 2 of this ordinance shall, before such license is issued, also pay into the treasury of the city a license fee of $1000 per annum for the privilege of selling spirituous, vinous and malt liquors in quantities and in the manner prescribed by section 2 of this ordinance, and in less quantities than one gallon.

Sec. 5. No license issued under the provisions of this ordinance shall be transferable by the person to whom the same is issued unless permission therefor is given by the city council upon due application made therefor, and upon the filing of a new bond by the person to whom the license is so transferred, which bond shall contain the same conditions specified as to the bond provided for by section 3 of this ordinance.

Sec. 6. Whosoever by himself or another either as principal, clerk or agent, or servant, shall sell any spirituous, intoxicating, malt, vinous, fermented or mixed liquors, within the corporate limits of said city, or within one mile beyond the outer boundaries thereof, to any minor, apprentice, insane or idiotic or distracted person, habitual drunkard or person intoxicated, or shall suffer any of the liquors sold or disposed of by him to be drank upon any part of the premises where sold or disposed of, or who shall open any package upon said premises, shall be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300 for each offense.

Sec. 7. Whosoever, by himself or another, either as principal, clerk, agent or servant, shall sell any of said liquor specified in sections 1 and 6 of this ordinance, to any person who uses said liquor to the detriment of himself or family, for any purpose whatever, after being directed or notified (either personally or in writing) by the mayor of the city, city marshal, or any near relative of said person, not to sell such person liquors, shall be fined not less than $100, nor more than $300, for each offense.

Sec. 8. Any person who shall, upon any public street, park or alley, vacant lot or grounds, or any public or open stairway, or hall, or in any public place, within the corporate limits of this city, drink any spirituous, intoxicating, malt or vinous liquors, shall be deemed guilty of a nuisance, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined a sum not less than $5, nor more than $25, for each offense.

Sec. 9. If any physician or person representing himself to be a physician shall make or sign a prescription for intoxicating, malt, vinous, fermented or mixed liquors with the name of the person to receive the prescription left blank and to be filled by another person, or shall sign a prescription for any such liquors after such prescription has been filled or shall knowingly give a false prescription for any such liquors for the purpose of enabling any person to avoid any of the provisions of this ordinance, such physician or person representing himself to be a physician shall be deemed guilty of an offense, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not less than $100, nor more than $300 for each and every such offense, and any druggist of this city who shall by himself, agent or clerk, knowingly receive and fill any such prescription shall be fined in a like sum, and upon conviction thereof the license granted such druggist shall be cancelled.

Sec 10. All ordinances or parts of ordinances heretofore enacted and now in force in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed, except that all penalties incurred under the provisions of any previously enacted ordinance shall be deemed to be released or remitted by the repeal in this ordinance.

MANITOU SPRINGS.

The arrivals in Manitou are becoming more numerous every day and indications now point to an early opening of the season.

Among the many improvements to the park in the centre of Manitou, will be a handsome iron fence which is to surmount the retaining wall on the south side of the Fountain, by the soda spring pavilion.

Mr. G. W. Blood, who was so seriously injured several weeks ago by a kick in the forehead from a horse, has almost entirely recovered. The frontal bone was fractured and he remained in an unconscious condition for two weeks, his life at first being despaired of.

District Court.

In the district court yesterday morning Mr. J. K. Vannata argued the motion for a new trial in the case of Jebe, et al. The manner of reaching a verdict as outlined yesterday morning was given, and the attorney cited law to prove that verdicts must be determined by evidence. Mr. John Cochran, assistant district attorney resisted the motion. The court took the matter under advisement.

Trial of the case of McFerran vs Jackson was continued, the entire day being taken up with testimony for the defense. Testimony was not all in at the hour for adjournment and probably will not be by noon to day.

Cases were set for trial yesterday morning as follows: February 19 at 9:30 a. m., Baker vs. Midland railroad, Carpenter vs. Carpenter, Parrish vs. City of Colorado Springs. The last two named will only be called up to settle the decree and judgment. February 20, at 9 a. m., Quinliven vs. Ehrich, Woods vs. Smith; February 21, Donovan vs. City of Colorado Springs; February 24, Walsh vs Williams, Grace vs. Smith. When these cases are disposed of there will be about 60 still remaining on the docket. It is probable that court will adjourn on the 24th inst.

A large audience packed the opera house last night to witness the "Spider and the Fly," Mike Leavitt's latest spectacular production. The name selected for the production would be almost enough to strangle it, and perhaps nine out of ten persons who went to the opera house expected a huge roast, but they were agreeably disappointed. "Spider and the Fly" has as little plot and is as meaningless as spectacular productions usually are, but the specialty acts and the costuming were of the best. The company carries a large amount of scenery, but for some reason it was not used. Bessie Cleveland and Hilda Thomas were the favorites of the evening and their singing and acting brought applause at every turn. The latter, perhaps, made the hit of the evening singing, "The Cows are in the Clover." There were a number of specialty acts, of which the Dare Bros., (one of whom has lost a leg) on the horizontal bar, was the most notable. There was a small ballet, with good dancing and singing throughout.

The Gazette has the pleasure of announcing a new real estate firm for this city; that of Nevins & Kennedy. The members are Geo. O. Nevins and O. J. Kennedy, and they have their office in room K of the postoffice block. This will prove one of the strongest firms in the city, as Mr. Nevins is well and favorably known as a business man, and Mr. Kennedy is an old time resident of the city. Mr. Kennedy's father was for many years connected with the Mute and Blind institute, and he was at one time district clerk of this county. For several years past Mr. Kennedy has been engaged in business in Kansas and different parts of Colorado.

At Weber hall this evening will be given the entertainment for Grace Episcopal church organ fund. The entertainment will be unique and very interesting. Tickets can be purchased at Bell's drug store and are sold at 75 cents each. Two Kinder symphonies will be given, opening with Haydn's Kinder symphonies and concluding with Romberg's Kinder symphonies. Between the symphonies will be given the following tableaux: "The Wise and Foolish Virgins," "Jephthah's Daughter," "How Happy Could I be with Either, Were T'other Dear Charmer Away," "Margaret Moore," "Laura and Schiller," "Love or Money," "The Angelus," "Comin' Through the Rye," "Liberty," "Pygmalion and Galatea," "The Poet's Dream."

THE GAZETTE.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1890.

Did you get your valentine?

Dr. William Fowler was upon the streets yesterday after a prolonged sickness.

The Rafield Roadsters will leave the club room at 1:30 p. m. Sunday for a run to Fountain.

Victoria, the popular caterer at 118 N. Tejon street, furnished the lunch for the El Paso club ball on Thursday evening.

Mrs. A. C. Hopkins and the Misses Jennie and Linnie Washburn leave here on the Santa Fe this evening for their home in Kansas City.

Mr. E. H. Gammon, a prominent stockman from the northeastern part of the county, was in the city yesterday, as a witness in the district court.

The Rev. R. C. Bristol yesterday sold his old home on Nevada avenue through the real estate agency of M. Kennedy. It is understood the price paid is about $7000.

A flat car on the Midland, loaded with telegraph poles, left the track in one of the tunnels in Ute pass Friday. The car was badly wrecked, but the delay to trains was slight.

Attention is called to the notice in another column offering a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the parties who set fire to the timber on Cheyenne mountain.

Fred F. Horn yesterday purchased 100 feet of property in the Ensign addition on North Tejon street, of Edward Ferris, for $2400. Mr. Horn contemplates building in the near future.

The first practice game of the Polo club on the new grounds will be played this morning. The new grounds are situated on the east side of the Santa Fe track, on the Austin Bluff road.

Mrs. J. E. Van Buskirk wishes us to express her thanks to Mrs. F. H. Potter and Mrs. E. C. Learned, who so kindly raised the subscription enabling her to pay the taxes upon her little property.

The next regular meeting of the school board does not occur until about the first of March, and the directors have not decided what steps shall be taken looking towards a new building.

The Rock Island passenger agents passed through the city yesterday morning and went to Leadville over the Midland. They have a special train with a dining car, and will probably go on to Salt Lake.

The Prince Wolkonsky will give his second lecture at the First Congregational church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The subject will be "Social Life in Russia," and a very interesting and instructive recital may be expected.

E. P. Moon, of Husted, has furnished the following record of the weather for the week ending February 13, 1890: Highest temperature, 59°, on 8th; lowest temperature, 3°, on 1st; weekly mean temperature, 18.85°. Direction of the wind, north three days, veering one day, west one day, south two days.

Justice Walker had before him yesterday Frank Smith of Edgerton, charged with assaulting James W. Green of that place. The case was appealed from Justice Cosman; Smith entered a plea of guilty and was fined. Both men are members of the Edgerton school board, and it seems that during a discussion regarding the teacher Green got hit.

Cucharras street property has been having a little boom this past week. In the early part of this week Curtis & Co. picked up a hundred feet for different parties, situated between the steam laundry and the Odie block, at an aggregate of about $15,000. Yesterday Mrs. Julia Hall purchased the entire one hundred feet for upwards of $20,000.

Miss Hext, the elocutionist, had two numbers on the programme at the entertainment for the M. E. church Thursday evening. They were "Mother and Poet," and "De 'Sperience ob de Reb'rend Quacko Strong." Miss Hext's talent as a reader is so generally known, that it is almost needless to say her numbers were among the most popular of the evening.

Justice Walker yesterday sentenced Arthur Estes, aged 10 years, and Arthur Dennis, aged 13 years, to terms of three years each in the reform school at Golden. These are the boys caught stealing sacks from Ord's stables. Two other boys who were before the justice upon the charge of being connected with the affair were discharged. The justice gave them a severe talking to that will do them good if they heed it, and then told them that the complaint was held for the present in the hope that they will prove better boys in the future.

Eugene Fields in Chicago News has the following to say about the popular comedian, Mr. Roland Reed, who will appear at the opera house next Friday evening in his great comedy entitled "The Woman Hater.": "Mr. Roland Reed appears to have hit the town and to have hit it hard. In this particular Chicago is no exception; Reed's business throughout the country this season has been so large as to belong properly to the class called phenomenal. The Woman Hater is a bright and strong comedy, and it seems to be in the line of the eternal fitness of things that it should have fallen into the hands of Roland Reed."

Dr. J. H. Gower of Denver will give two organ concerts at the First Congregational church on Tuesday, February 18. One of these concerts will be a matinee at 3 o'clock; the other at 8 o'clock the same evening. A general desire has been expressed that a concert might be held in the afternoon in order to give invalids who cannot get out in the evening an opportunity to hear the organ. In accordance with this desire the matinee has been arranged. Mrs. Sobrino, nee Mlle. Bianca, one of the finest, perhaps the finest vocalist in Denver, will sing at both concerts. The usual admission price of 50 cents will be charged.

While in the Eastern markets, undersigned contracted for five hundred Chamber Suites of different lines. Since January the first, we have sold for the Alamo Hotel, 85 suites. The Barker House, 44 suites. The Glockner Sanitarium, 20 suits, which together with a number of other other large and small bills will run the aggregate up to more than two hundred suites. Our experience and knowledge of the business and acquaintance in the market guarantee our purchases on the lowest possible basis, and it must be apparent to everybody that a firm that can buy and sell in such quantities can buy for 5, 10, 15 and 25 dollars per suite less than the dealer who orders in small lots, and who does not agree to dispose of any certain number of suites.

We have been in the Mercantile business for 18 years, through all kinds of competition, and the livelier the better for us, as it only demonstrates to the satisfaction of all, that we can not be undersold. So come right along, we do not propose to lose a single customer on any item of General House Furnishings.

Respectfully,
FAIRLEY BROTHERS.

We now have on the market 17 tracts of ground ranging in size from one-half to two-thirds of an acre each, located in the valley in the southeastern part of the city. The ground is very fertile, and is desirable for vegetable gardens and chicken ranches. We sell ditch right with each tract. Streets and alleys are laid out. The prices of these gardens range from $175 to $250 each, and they will be sold on the easiest possible installments. Garden ground so near the center of a large city will grow in value rapidly, and it will pay to invest in these tracts while prices are on the ground floor.
